

ACAP

ARMY CAREER AND ALUMNI PROGRAM

ACAP On-line

Your Transition Assistance Internet Resource

The Army Career and Alumni Program web site is your best resource for transition and job assistance information, job listings and links to a variety of other useful web site resources. Transitioners can select topics using menus or icons, click on hyperlinks to learn more about a particular topic or search the entire web site.

Unique paths lead Transitioners, Employers and Army Leaders to ACAP On-Line offerings created to meet their needs.

For Transitioners:

- Transition information about relocation, education and training, health care and finances, as well as links to related web sites, presented in linked articles or PDF or HTML versions of the Preseparation Guide.
- A virtual web page for each Army ACAP Center with customized contact and location information, services, local announcements, jobs, job fairs and “By Invitation Only” hiring conferences.
- A News and Announcements section that highlights current transition initiatives and resources, including Verification of Military Experience and Training (VMET) FAQs.
- A Spider Search you can use to explore five “Best of the Web” job search resources.
- ACAP Employer Job Listings for jobs with employers who want to hire former service members.
- An Individual Transition Plan that serves as a realistic framework for your career goals and which lets you plan your education, training and employment objectives.

- Links to valuable transition and career-related web sites such as VMET, Army/American Council on Education Registry Transcript System (AARTS), the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) and the Reserves and National Guard.
- Click on the Personal Coach icon for guided, directed transition and job assistance.

For Employers:

- Access to former service members through job listings you create and manage at Employer Job Listings. Post current job opportunities directly on the system and view your listings the same way job seekers do.

For Army Leaders:

- Important information about ACAP and the ACAP process.
- Direct email access to the Director, ACAP.

Use the Internet from your home, office or local ACAP Center to access ACAP On-Line at <http://www.acap.army.mil>.

Keep in mind that ACAP On-Line should be used as part of a balanced job search plan. The Army Career and Alumni Program continues to be the best source of transition and job assistance information. Plan to visit your ACAP Center on a regular basis and keep in touch with your Army Career and Alumni Program.

